LEAGUE of NATIONS Blues

By SAMUEL T. DEW

Tempo di Marcia.

Till Ready Old Kais-er Bill was feel-ing bum, said he I'm feel-ing blue I The change of air helped Kais-er Bill, the change of scenes the same It ate so blamed much sau-er-kraut, till I don't know what to do. So he called in all his took him down a peg or two, and it al-so changed his name. He is rest-ing in a med-i-cine men and had them thump his chest; look at his tongue and feel his pulse said they "You need a love-ly home that's furn-ished to a "T" with plent-y "you know what" to drink he's liv-ing swim-mingly rest'' We re-com-mend new scen-er-y a change of air does good You had bet-ter seek an-ly He has re-gained his form-er health and from the facts I learn, That he has lots of oth-er clime, an-nex it if you could just an-nex France and Bel-gium too, and time to smoke and lots of time to burn He al-so hears from Ger-man-y that One day he had a thought, that told him that he ought to take a trip ..... Hed like to vis-it Un-cle Sammy 'twas on his program that he would. Hed rule, Brit-tania and al-so rule the waves, hed live in France and Bel-gium too Our class of mu-sic got his goat 'twas not the kind hed use, we played them all at once and called them League of Nations Blues. He League of Nations Blues.
