

THE BLUES

WORDS BY
LT. W. L. WILLIAMSON MUSIC BY
A. LEOPOLD RICHARD

PUBLISHED BY Legters Music Co.
CHICAGO

The Blues

Words by LT.W.L.WILLIAMSON

Music by A. LEOPOLD RICHARD

Tempo di Jazz

mf

Till ready

p

Ev - er since the world war be - gan, I'll tell you the truth all I can,
In the line of march on that day There were men from all na - tions, say,

Here I was to go and fight, For De-moc-ra - cy and our coun-try's right. Un-
And I tell you it wa grand, For 'twas head-ed by a great big brass band. There til we were an - nounced Arm - is - tice Day, And par-were some young and old, some short and tall, They were ades in towns and vil - lag - es were un - der way There was planned a com-mit - tee dressed in kha - ki and some were in na - vy blue, They were joy - ful and hap - py, trip a - broad, And here I was out, oh my God!

that was true, I shiv - ered as I saw them all.

CHORUS

Oh, I've got those Arm - is - tice Day Blues, That Dem - o - crat - ic League of Na - tions Blues

mp

From my hat down to my shoes, 'Tmakes my way look cloud-y, hope you'll under-stand Tho'

Hard - ings the next pres - i - dent of our land, And on March the fourth in the White House will stand, 'Twould not set - tle mat - ters, there, I lose, For I've got those Arm - is - tice Day Blues.