

To Miss Rita Kennedy, with the Composer's Best Wishes.

Jan 1923.

IF YOU'RE NICE-

YOU'LL DO.

MISS NELLA WEBB

FEATURED BY MISS NELLA
WEBB.

WRITTEN BY

ROSE SAYERS.

COMPOSED BY

GEORGE BRYER.

PIANOLA CO.
252 COLLINS ST. MELBOURNE.
NEW YORK LONDON

COPYRIGHT

If You're Nice, — You'll Do!

Words by ROSE SAYERS.

Music by GEORGE BRYER.

PIANO. Moderato.

VOICE.

Till Ready.

1 There was once a lit - tle Maid, And 2 All that day she stayed at home, In the 3 All next day, from Nine till Four, She had she was much a - fraid She'd be left up - on the shelf, so she, — To a -

Hope that men would come, For her of - fer was a tempt - ing one: A Cal - lers by the score; But this lit - tle Maid was hard to please; First, the

- void that horrid fact, — Ex - er - cised a lit - tle tact, In a ve - ry no - vel way, as you will Life of Married Bliss, A Wife to spoon and kiss, But, strange to say, of callers she had young men were too cold, Then, the warm ones were too old, And pro - posed as soon as she sat on their

"If you're nice, you'll do." (1)

see. To a News-pa - per she hied, An Ad - ver - tise - ment sup - plied, Went none. To go out, she donned her hat, When, down - stairs, up - on the mat, At the knees. Some were dif - fi - dent, some shy, So at them she winked her eye, Stroked their home, and then, contented, went to bed; Next morn, while having toast, The Door, she heard her Maid, in tones quite clear, Saying "Yes, this is the place, And I chins, and made them blush a vi - vid red: She the "Right" man found at last; He'd a Rall. Ritard.

Pa - per came by Post, She opened it, and this is what she read:
real - ly like your face Much better than the others who've called here
Pre - sent, and a "Past," At him she sweetly smiled, then coyly said:

CHORUS. A Little Quicker.
1 & 2. "I re - quire a man at Number Twenty - six, If you suit, the Wedding
3. "I re - quire a man of Years, just Twenty six; One whose been be - fore at

"If you're nice, you'll do." (2)

day we soon can fix. This is op - en un - to all; If you "Lov-ers' lit - tle tricks." One who "siz - es up" a girl, Makes her dont mean "Biz" then please dont call; You, with me, will have a ve - ry happy time, I've a feel he's set her brain a - whirl. If you care to call a - round some afternoon, You may lit - tle Co - sy Cor - ner built for two; Take a friend's ad - vice, Just knock twice, If you're have a tri - al Kiss, or Hug, or two; If O. K. - the day You can say Right a - 1st time 2nd time Last time.

nice -- you'll do!" "I re - do!" do!"
 way. -- you'll do!" "I re - do!" do!"

"If you're nice, you'll do." (3)