

THE LATEST HIT BY THE WRITERS OF MORNING CY!

HEY THERE, SIS!

WORDS By

HAROLD ATTERIDGE

MUSIC By

BURT PETERS

MURRAY BENNETT

POPULAR 50
EDITION

Hey There, Sis!

by Writers of "Morning Cy."

Words by HAROLD ATTERIDGE.

Music by BERT PETERS

Moderato.

Moderato.

Hank Hank

Per - kins was a bar - ber and a la - dy's man as well. In got a reg' lar cit - y job, just how no - bod - y knows. To Copyright MCMIX by LEO FEIST, 134 W. 37th St. N. Y.

International Copyright secured and reserved.
Rights for Mechanical Instruments Reserved.

ev' - ry town where he would work he thought him - self a swell. He show he was a sport, he bought ten dol - lars worth of clothes. He act - ed like a cut - up, when a la - dy was in sight. He start - ed out one ev' - ning and he saw a five cent show, And spent a dol - lar six - ty five in just a sin - gle night, Gee, met a vode - ville act - ress that down home he used to know. She whiz! when he would meet a gal he'd up and hold her hand, And in - tro - duced him to a drink he nev - er drank be fore! Hank's give her such a line of talk, she'd vow that he was grand, When - drink was al - ways "milk-shake", but he or - dered sev - en more, His ev - er an - y - thing at all in skirts would come his way, He'd In - ger - soll was gone next day, his mind was rath - er dim, But chew an - oth - er stick of gum, and walk right up and say:

 loud he mur - mured "ding it all" as it came back to him:

CHORUS.

Hey there, sis! How-dy do! Glad to see you, How are you?

How's the folks? Feel - ing well? Just the same! Well, now do tell! Come a - long? Am I on? Will a duck swim?

Well, I swan! You for me, well gosh, all bliss! Then its me for you, so 1 hey there, sis! 2 hey there, sis!