Why did my sweet - ie leave me, Why did we have to part? No oth - ersweet-ie Noth-ing could please me bet - ter, Noth-ing could bring more cheer Than to re-ceive a can re-lieve me of my ach-ing heart. Why cant I have the sun-shine, nice love let - ter from my sweet-ie, dear. Noth-ing but dis - ap - point-ment, Sun-shine in-stead of gloom? Why do I have to livewith shad-ows, In my lit-tle room?
Adds to my mis-e - ry No-bod-y ev-er seems to care for Mel-an-choly me!

Chorus

When the night is calm and peace - ful, Lov-in' hearts are all in tune — There's

p-f

two lone-some peo-ple in the whole wide world, That's me and the man in the moon! —

When the lit-tle birds are nest - ing, And I list-en to them croon — There's two lone-some peo-ple in the whole wide world, That's me and the man in the moon! —

Just be - fore I'm count - ing sheep, Thru my win - dow he comes to peep,

And with each oth - er we're sym - pa - thiz - ing. Looking at the hap - py sweet - — hearts, While they sit a - round and spoon — There's two lone - some people in the whole wide world, That's me and the man in the moon!
