

EPPIE

BY CLAIRE GOLDENTHAL

Successfully Introduced By

EPPIE'S SYNCOPATORS

This number can be obtained on records and MEL O DEE Roll.

Claire Goldenthal

Published by

CHARTER OAK PUBLISHING CO.

51 Albany Ave., Hartford, Conn.

New York, Chicago, Boston

EPPIE

3

Words and Music by CLAIRE GOLDENTHAL

Introduction

Piano f

Voice

Did you hear — Ev'-ry night —

— bout that syn - co - pa - ting man? — Hes a — we hear Ep - pie play so grand. — What a bear, — You must hear him when you can. — He sight, — He can play to beat the band. — He does - n't read a note, A song he nev-er wrote. He is makes the big - est hit, He does n't care a bit. All the writ - ing all his fame, And we all know his name. We call him folks dance 'round him swell, And they be - gin to yell. They call him

Chorus

Ep - pie, Ep - pie:

He can play that ba - by grand so pep - pie,

When he starts to play, We all be - gin to sway. We love it, so please let it go, We want to hear him night and day Oh! Oh! Oh!

Ep - pie, Ep - pie,

We're all set and you can bet that nights are nev-er blue A The girl ie heard him play — one ev'-ning She hol-lered right a - way — folks just sim - ply rave — they're hap - py Cant stop to hes - i - tate —

— Stop teas-ing, Oh Ep - pie, Ep-pie it's you:
— They're snap-py, Oh Ep - pie, Ep-pie it's you.