I'm here in Swe - den. And you are far a - Nighttime is fall - ing. Will you be with me way; — You left me cry - ing. At the dawn - ing of the day. — That soon? — My heart is call - ing. For your com - ing with the moon. — It's day has last - ed half a year. The night is com - ing soon. — Won't beams will bring me no love dreams. If you should not be near; — So you come back — to me be - fore The ris - ing of the moon? — hur - ry back — to Swe - den and You'll find me wait - ing here. —

CHORUS

When it's sun - set in Swe - den I'll be need - in' your love, I'll be lone - ly in Swe - den When the night falls from a bove, For the night-time there is six months long, I will miss your kiss, I'll need your song. Hear me plead - in', Come back to Swe - den When the mid - night sun goes down. When it's down.
