List-en to me Hen-ry Lee, speak-ing con-fi-den-tia-ly, I've got some-thing to tell you In-ter-est-ing as can be, I'm not goin' to use re-straint while I'm mak-ing this com-plaint And it wont take ver-y long— to tell you just what's wrong;

In-suf - fi-cient Sweet-ie, you have-n't got the kind of love for me,

In-suf - fi-cient Sweet-ie, you're just as in-suf - fi-cient as can be The man I love must be a real world beat-er, with a kiss that kicks like a colt's re-peat-er, You may have been fast In days that are gone, But some-one sure-ly put your air breaks on.

In-suf-fi-cient Sweetie you're slower than a train in Ar - kan-sas List - en to me while I tell you true _____ you ought to go back to the coun-try to the tall tall grass, And watch the snails and turtles go a whiz-zin' past In-suf-fi-cient Sweet-ie you're

To Patter

Sweet-ies too suf-fi-cient for you. _____ When I go step-ping out with you wine and scotch flow just like glue, The time you paid my car-fare I had to shout Cause when you o-pened up your pock-et book a mouse jumped out you call on me and sit and gaze How come you have such coun-try ways you were a hardboiled papa in your home town, But lis-ten hard boiled pa-pa, ma-ma sure has soft-ened you down, you ought to
